Quiet Days: Monday 24th September and Thursday 15th November 10am-4.30pm. A small group will be hosted at Pleshey. The day will include time for prayer & reflection, your own personal space, and a good lunch! The cost is £22, and transport is available. To book a place, contact Beth.

29 September Philip will be ordained priest on at 3pm in Saffron a Walden. There are a few seats available if you would like to attend. Please speak to Philip.

MORE IMPORTANTLY Sunday 30th September Philip will celebrate his first Eucharist at 9:30 in Rayne Church. It would be great if we could all attend the service to show our support to Philip in this important stage of his Priestly Ministry. There will be a service at 11am at Great Notley if you cannot attend.

Motor Neurone Disease Association Helen Foster is doing a 5K dog jog with her dog Buddy on 1st September. This is raising money for the Motor Neurone Disease Association in memory of her mum. If anyone would like to sponsor her please see Barbara Crick who has her sponsor form.
